Upcoming keys dates...

Visit from the easter Bunny

3rd – 6th April – easter

16th April – Visit from the police service-

22nd April- Earth day; we will be exploring nature, caring for our planet and engaging in activities with the children.

23rd – St George's Day; We will be celebrating with themed crafts, stories and discussions about bravery, kindness and English culture.

Term Focus:

Baby Moons and Teenie Moons- We are focusing on single words this term, encouraging and building confidence with our communication using flashcards, reading a range of stories and having clear conversations with staff and peers repeating lots of single words.

Mini Moons – The mini moons are focusing on their fine motor skills under the domain me by threading through a range of different objects strengthening their pincer grasp.

Full Moons – We are still welcoming new children into our rooms so working on creating bonds and sharing. We are also focusing on emotions this term relating to the colour monster, reading stories and having lots of circle time activities hearing the child's voice.

April-

A month of spring celebrations, learning and community. As we step into April, we're excited for a month filled with celebration and meaningful learning experiences.
